SACSCOC Corner

The Potential QEP Topic Ranking Survey was administered in Spring 2014 and asked HCTC employees to priority rank the three potential QEP topics of advising, first-year experience program/ orientation, and online education in order of importance and what they thought the next QEP topic should be. Respondents chose first-year experience/ orientation as their first choice for the next QEP topic, advising as their second choice, and online education as their third choice. The next QEP topic will be first year experience course/program.

President's Cabinet Planning Day

On July 15, 2014, the IEPR unit conducted the third Annual Planning Day with the President's Cabinet. The Annual Planning Day is a collaborative meeting between the President's Cabinet and the IEPR unit to discuss the past year's assessment activities/challenges improvements, plan the upcoming year's assessment activities to address previous year's challenges, and identify SACSCOC institutional effectiveness improvements. Additionally, IEPR presents the

A friendly reminder that course assessments are due in Compliance Assist on the same day that grades are due on Monday, December 15, 2014.

to the President's Cabinet.

Assessment Coaching Sessions

Each IEPR unit member serves as an Assessment Coach to HCTC units/sub-units. In September, Assessment Coaches began meeting with unit/sub-unit leaders to review 2013-2014 Assessment Plan feedback and the Assessment Plan Strategic Roadmap in preparation for developing the 2014-2015 Assessment Plan. The Assessment Plan Strategic Roadmap is a planning tool that provides a visual representation of the unit/sub-unit Operational Plan goals that have been assessed via Assessment Plan intended outcomes. The goal is to assess all Operational Plan goals via Assessment Plan intended outcomes throughout the strategic planning cycle.
