Student Representatives:

Mandate: This committee was formed in the Fall of 2005 by Faculty Council as a response to faculty interest in discovering ways to help students be more interested in their coursework and more active participants in the education process. Originally, formed as a workgroup in the fall of 2004, the members recognized the overwhelming number of issues that center around student engagement, and in the interest of students, requested that the Faculty Council form a standing committee.

Charge: This committee is charged with issues that the Student Engagement Committee will discuss and plan for changes will include, but are not limited to: best teaching practices, a holistic approach to working with students both inside and outside of the classroom, improving academic standards and performance, addressing student learning styles etc.

Membership: Innovative and enthusiastic faculty , staff and administration, as well as students are welcome.
